GREENVILLE

School—Lenten Services at St. Andrew's—Boy Scouts Attend Recop-tion—Notes.

The winter term of the Greenville Grammar school is nearly finished and examinations have begun. The school term ends May 30 for the Easter session of one week and reopens Monday, April 8.

First Practice for Team.
One of the sure signs of spring is the small boys playing baseball and spinning tops. At the Greenville Grammar school have been getting a little practice for their baseball team.
Real practice has not started yet but will be in full swing by the opening of the season. The Greenville expects to have a winning team this season.

Lenten Services at St. Andrew's church this (Friday) evening will be the men's choir.

tional church and Troop 4 of St. Andrew's church attended the Boy Scouts annual reception at the Y. M. C. A.

Daughters will meet this evening at the home of Miss Letitia Kramer on Central avenue.

SOCIALISTS BELIEVE
AUTHORITY IS EXCEEDED Claim Permission Should be Granted for Labor Meeting in the Streets.

At a meeting held Thursday night the Norwich Socialist party passed resolutions placing themselves on record in the belief that the public orders are exceeding their authority and are depriving citizens of their rights when they refuse permission to hold labor meetings on the streets.

The resolutions are signed by Albert Boardman and George H. Moles and read as follows: The resolutions contend that national and state police guarantee to the citizens freedom of speech and that such right in the case of the streets is a public right and that the police have no right to restrict the exercise of this right. The resolutions also contend that the police are exceeding their authority and are depriving citizens of their rights when they refuse permission to hold labor meetings on the streets and that it is the duty of the police simply to preserve order and prevent congestion of traffic.

Two Reports on Games Commission.
It is believed that the committee on fish and game will bring in two reports, a majority and minority, upon the bill of Representative Pitkin which would create a fish and game commission and create in its stead a single-headed commission. Fish and game laws throughout the state are working hard to persuade the committee to report unfavorably upon the measure. The committee is expected to report on the bill by the end of the week.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH
How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sneezing, no more mucous discharges, dryness or headache, no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply it to the nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

Three Court Cases Settle
Action Brought Against Central Vermont Road by Wm. B.
Walker Goes Off Docket—Harris-Donovan Case Continued Until Next Tuesday.

Three cases which were down for trial in the superior court in New London Thursday morning were settled, one was withdrawn, one was continued and three were continued.
The disposition of these cases failed to provide business and court adjourned until Friday morning for short calendar and the jury was excused until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The case of Susan McWilliams against Anthony Squadrone was settled for $500 without costs. The case arose over an automobile collision in the Noank road in October, 1915, the plaintiff being an occupant in a machine owned by Squadrone and the defendant being injured. The suit which Crumb had against Squadrone as a result of the same accident was withdrawn.

It was announced to the court that the case of Vermont Railway had been settled. The suit was to recover damages of $5,000 for destruction of a house at Kilmaraugham, on land adjoining the tracks of the road from sparks from a locomotive.

COMPILED RECORDS OF THE CINCINNATI.
Book Has Been Issued by the Connecticut Historical Society.

The work of publishing in book form the records of the Connecticut State society of the Cincinnati, 1783-1894, has been completed and the volume entitled "Records of the Cincinnati Historical Society, forming a special publication. The publication of the records has been issued by the society in a series of plates by a photographic process, was made possible by the generous aid of former senator S. W. Bulkeley, a member of the society, and the work of the society's librarian, A. J. Bates. Two volumes of the records, each containing the larger the correspondence, compose each set. The original records of the society, from which the books were made, have been in the possession of the historical society for more than a half century.

The Society of the Cincinnati is the oldest of the patriotic societies of the United States. Eligibility to membership is prized very highly by those fortunate enough to have the honor.
It was founded by Washington's officers in 1783. Senator Bulkeley belongs to the Cincinnati by right of service of his ancestor, Lieut. Col. Ephraim Bulkeley, who was captain of the train band which marched from Colchester at the Lexington alarm in April, 1775, and who figured prominently in num-ous other campaigns.

The first suggestion of an organization of the officers of the army of the Revolution appears in a paper by General Knox, as "Rough Draft of a Society," dated West Point, April 15, 1783.
The paper was circulated among army officers and the signature of General Washington in his own hand lends authority to the organization. As soon as the war ended, a tremendous outpouring of the politicians who profess to see in the order of the Cincinnati a monarchy. In Connecticut the antagonism to the Cincinnati, which the annual reception at the Y. M. C. A.

Boys' Glee Club to Hold Concert at Sanatorium—Plans for Interference.

The Boys' Glee club had its final rehearsal before the concert at the tuberculosis sanatorium Friday night Thursday afternoon. The club is coming along finely under the leadership of R. V. Gorden.

It has been decided to hold the international dance Friday, April 30.
Committees have been appointed from the four Greek letter fraternities and they have had a meeting and selected this date. It is planned to make this an annual event.

The March issue of the Academy Journal was issued Thursday. It is very interesting, as usual. Harwood Dobson is editor-in-chief and deserves much praise for his good work.

Home From the War.
Dr. Gordon I. Hilop, surgeon on a British transport, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Annie Hilop, at her home, 100 Central street. Dr. Hilop holds a commission of first lieutenant in the British navy. He will remain until the first of next week.

THE SEVERE OR DRESSY.
All Good and in Brief Demand—Crown Trimming Popular—Examples of Modish Sport Hats—A Made Model That Was Noticeably Smart.

By a typographical error Thursday, the reference to children's hats of that season was made to read "cut" instead of "cure," which change the meaning of what was said about the little folks' charming hats.

In millinery for grownups there is a tendency to trim high upon the crown this spring.

An example of this mode was a black silk hat, with satin facing in black, and for trimming a coronet of burnt orange wheat on the crown, with finch of jet cabochons.

A stunning violet Continental shape was caught back with flowers in shades of blue and bronze.

Ultra smart was a crepe hat in mustard tint, a Chin Chin sailor, its edge of straw braid. A handsome ornament of jet was at the right side.

A fetching little model was a made hat in black satin, its brim run with gold thread.

The vogue of sport hats grows stronger as the season advances.
One example was in gray satin, with trim edging of Roman stripes and a Roman band.

A sport model in Kelly green had a facing of effective braid and was a particularly stylish shape.

Another modish model was a medium sailor in putty tinted chip, with green velvet and black straw.

Tailored hats, dressy hats, the newest for the season, are of semi-mourning, beach and riding hats, everything is to be found just now.

This is a reminder that the stock of hats will be low at any time this season than they are today, and that the hints of The Bulletin's hat columnists are to find the newest and best are worth improving.

SALMON RIVER BRIDGE
Legislators Oppose Bill Placing Cost
On Two Counties.

There was a joint meeting of the Legislature Thursday afternoon, called for the purpose of considering the bill reported favorably by the committee on bridges, which would place the cost of the bridge over the Salmon river, between the towns of East Hampton, upon the two counties, and not upon the two towns, as the matter was thoroughly discussed.
By a vote of 26 to 12 the bill was opposed in the house and senate.

To correct an error for the benefit of Manager Eriery of the Mechanics, states that he made no statement that the Red Sox had won 15 straight games from the Mechanics. What he said was that the team had won 15 games, including matches with other teams. The Red Sox record follows:
With the Mechanics they lost 2; Palmer, won 6, lost 0; Paper Hangers, won 3, lost 0; Green Sox, won 1 and lost 2; total of 11 games

THE SEVERE OR DRESSY.
All Good and in Brief Demand—
Crown Trimming Popular—Examples
Model That Was Noticeably Smart.

By a typographical error Thursday,
the reference to children's hats of that
charming hats.

this spring.

burnt orange wheat on the crown, with
finch of jet cabochons.

shades of blue and bronze.

Ultra smart was a crepe hat in
nament of jet was at the right side.

hat in black satin, its brim
run with gold thread.

stronger as the season advances.
One example was in gray
satin, with trim edging of Roman
stripes and a Roman band.
